In Memoriam

ADMINISTRATION

Miss Adams talks over the yearbook plans with editor, Diane Pritchard.

TO THE CLASSES OF FALL 1963 and SPRING 1964:

A farewell message has something in it of regret at parting, good wishes for happiness and success, and a fair measure of advice with guide lines for the future.

I can say in all sincerity that I am sorry to see you graduates of '63-'64 leave just when I am getting to know you; but the disappointment would be far greater were you not to go on to the next phase of your life at the scheduled time. So I congratulate you and send you forth with the hope that you will have a good life. This good life is not to be confused with apparent success measured only by position, money and influence. It is a life in which there is continuing intellectual growth and social awareness. Yours is the generation that must win the fight against intolerance, prejudice, and fear, so that there can be real peace at home and abroad, and the marvels of this space age will benefit and serve mankind.

This is a challenge that calls for men and women of strong moral fibre—citizens who recognize their own responsibilities and respect the rights of others, who avoid what is shoddy and cheap, and who will speak out in defense of authority in the family, discipline in education, and decency in conduct both in private and in public life.

This may sound ponderous and far removed from you now but time goes by so quickly that you cannot afford to stand on the side lines inactive and uncommitted. Let each of you develop the talents you have and use them generously and wisely; then you will surely have a good life.

Jackie Dutilh

FOREIGN EXCHANGE STUDENT

Our Foreign Exchange Student is 17-year-old Jacqueline Dutilh, who comes to us from Rotterdam, Holland.

After filling out numerous applications, Jacqueline was asked to go to a Committee of the American Field Service. She was asked many questions in English and then her papers were sent to New York, the main office of the American Field Service. It was here that she was chosen to come to America, and within three weeks she was on her way.

Jacqueline arrived in America in August. She is staying with the Carroll family on Clay Street and goes to school with her "sister" Martha, presently a low junior.

Jacqueline graduated from high school in Holland, but is a high senior at Washington. This enables her to take American courses that are not offered in Holland.

The main difference between Washington and her former school is the size. Jackie says that in Holland there were only 400 students. In Holland there are approximately 15 subjects, each of which are given only a few times or once a week. The languages of French, German, English, and the native Dutch are required of all students.

Presently, Jackie is a member of the AFS, the French Club, GAA, and an honorary member of the GSS.

Jacqueline will leave the Carroll family in June after graduation. She will then tour the United States for 3 weeks with the other members of the AFS, stopping at Washington, D.C., to meet President Johnson. From Washington, she will go back to Holland by ship.

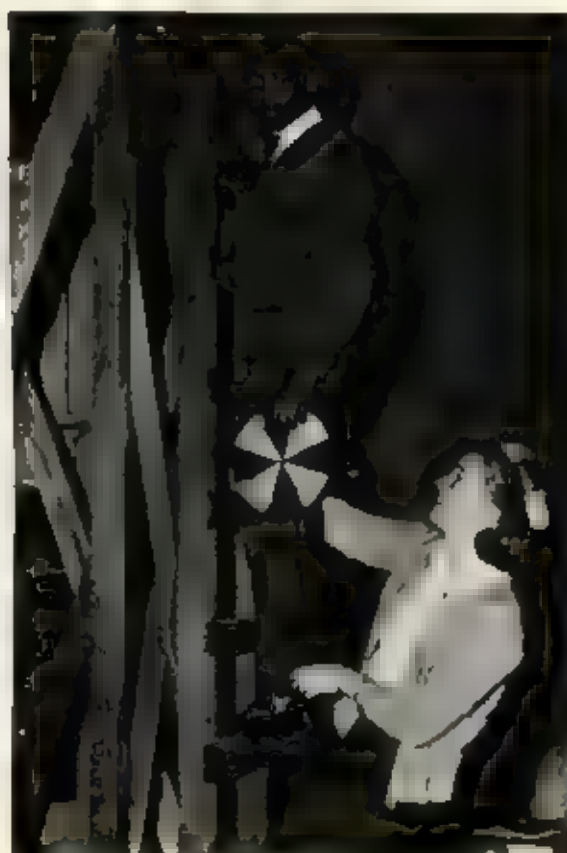

Although Jackie plans to live permanently in Holland with her family and friends, we sincerely hope that she will come back to America and visit us. To Jacqueline, we of George Washington High School, wish the best of success and happiness always.

Jackie and Ron Stallings discuss campus life.

Backstage pranks!

Jackie and Ron behind the scenes.

Jackie at work.

Aubery Holmes kicks off as Eagles open their season.

On September 20, the Eagles opened their season with a victory over Galileo, beating the Lions, 18-6. Russell Malone scored two touchdowns, and Lee Benton added the final score with a 43 yard run on an interception. Bob Masuda did a fine job in leading the team all afternoon. Coaches Lubramersky and Nelson were very pleased with the win which marked their varsity coaching debut.

On September 27, the Eagles clobbered Lowell, 26-0. The team played an excellent game as they out-classed and out-fought the Indians. The performances of Bob Prince in this game, brought him San Francisco's "Prep-of-the-Week" award. Bob intercepted three Lowell passes and ran a kick-off back 90 yards for an Eagle score. Washington hit, ran, and played hard throughout the whole game. They really deserved their win over arch-rival Lowell.

BALBOA

On October 18 the Eagles trounced Balboa, 32-19. In a game marred with penalties, Washington kept alive its winning streak of four straight games. Aubrey Holmes caught 2 touchdown passes, one from quarterback Biff Barnes, and the other from Ron Fong. Holmes also kicked 2 extra points for a game total of 12 points. Ron Fong led the passing attack, with 106 yards gained. The running attack was led by Ritter, Prince, and Malone. Victory in the Balboa game increased the Eagles bid for a 1963 playoff berth.

October 25, 1963 marked the date of the 19th annual Bell Game, which was played on Washington's field before a crowd of over 5,000 cheering fans. The Eagles scored a decisive comeback victory over the Mustangs with a 13-12 score. Lincoln dominated the first half, scoring their 12 points on well-executed drives. After the half-time activities, a fired-up Eagle team came back very strong, and scored on Bob Masuda's touchdown runs. Holmes added the extra point after Masuda's second TD which proved to be the game winning point. A key interception by Nat Kirtman in the fourth quarter ended the final Mustang threat.

SACRED HEART

The Eagles scored a hard-fought victory over Sacred Heart on November 1, at Balboa's field. Bob Masuda again scored two touchdowns, and Aubrey Holmes kicked a field goal and two conversions, to lead the Eagles to a 17-7 victory. The Eagle defense, led by Ron Balakian, Seth Hicks, John Wells, and Nat Kirtman, to mention a few, put on a fine show, as they held the Irish to 0 yards gained in the second half. The Eagles played a tough game that easily proved that they are going to be strong contenders in the 1963 AAA championships.

SAINT IGNATIUS

On November 8 the SI Wildcats came to Washington's field to meet the Eagles in a battle of the undefeated. The Cats scored a 14-6 victory in a game played on a muddy field. The Eagles played a tough game, but the big Cats marched for two scores in the first half. The Eagles got on the scoreboard on a Russ Malone pass to Brian Crannert, who fought off the Cat defender and went in for the TD. The defense for both teams was excellent. This marked Washington's first defeat in the '63 season.

POLY

The Friday, November 15 game against Poly ended the 1963 round-robin season for the Eagles. The 7-0 win over the Parrots gave Washington a 7-1 record, the best any Eagle squad has had at Washington for a long time. Playing against a tough Poly team, looking for a spot in the playoffs, the Eagles pounded out a touchdown in the third quarter on a 6 yard run by Bob Masuda. This was the first time that a Washington team shut out the Parrots since the AAA began.

Bob Prince (30) takes off with the ball.

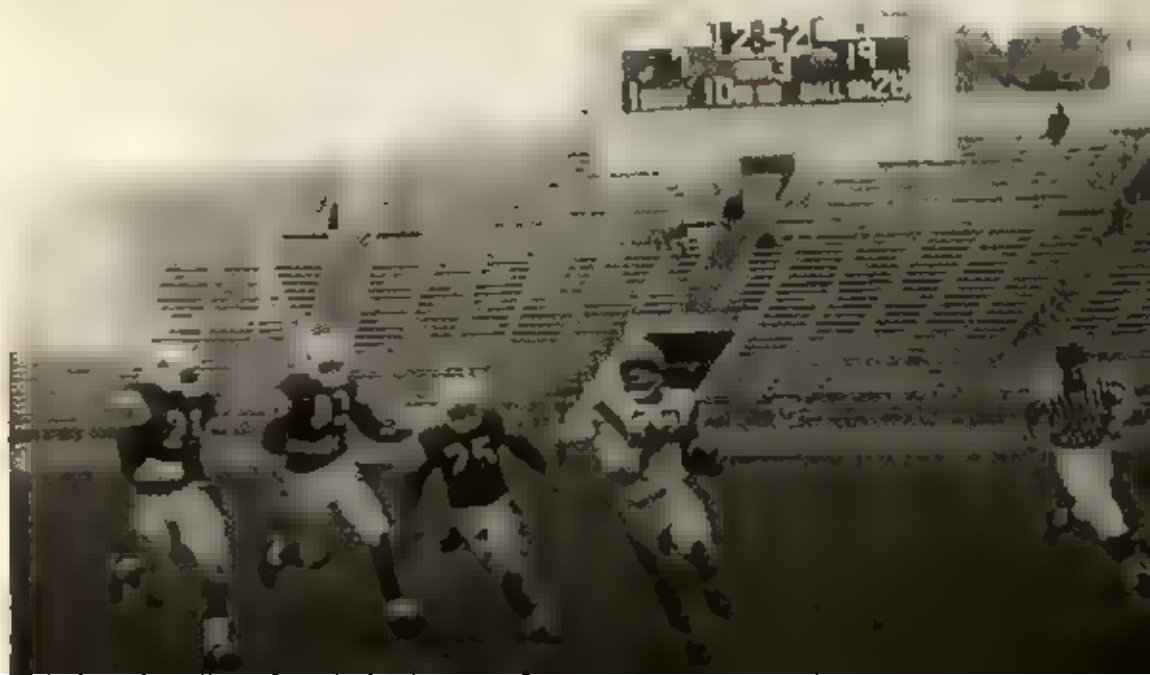

SEMI FINALS

On November 21 the Washington Eagles moved into the championship game by defeating Sacred Heart 25-13 in the first of two AAA playoff games. The Eagles completely dominated the Irish throughout the game. The defense was tremendous, as they held the Irish to minus net yardage. The Eagles scored on their first play of the game on a Barnes to Kirtman pass, which covered 60 yards. Bob Masuda, Russ Malone and Bob Prince kept the offense moving for the rest of the game, as the Eagles scored three more times to put the game on ice.

Coaches of the year, Nelson and Lubamersky.

The Eagles played the SI Wildcats on December 7 for the A.A.A. championship. The Cats defeated Washington 21-0. The massive SI line opened up big holes for Johnson and Dugan and gave excellent protection for quarterback Ray Calcagno. The Eagles were plagued with injuries early in the game; John Wells and Seth Hicks, outstanding linemen, were put out of the game. John Salisbury played a terrific game on both offense and defense. An Eagle touchdown on a Barnes to Cranert pass was called back because of an offside penalty. The Eagles displayed many drives, but all were halted by the tough Cat defense. Congratulations must be given to Coaches Lubamersky and Nelson and their fine team for an outstanding game and an outstanding season. Washingtonians can be very proud of their varsity football team.

In the backfield, things began looking up for Washington's J.V.'s. The two hard working coaches, Firpo and Brock developed the boys into a championship team, which went through the season with a record of 6 wins and no losses. The team scored impressive victories over Lowell, SI, and SH. Two games on the schedule were cancelled because of the rain. It was a determined team effort throughout the season which brought the JV's their City title. Credit is given, however, to these outstanding members: Captain John Adams, James Day, Greg Pedrin, Willy Durkin, Gerald Ladd, Ken Price, Morrey Rubenstein, Mike O'Neil, and of course, Virgil Paton. Congratulations to Coach Firpo and Coach Brock and their great team for bringing the Junior Varsity football championship to Washington.

Early season injuries plagued the Eaglets, causing two losses and a tie in their first three games. Following the slow start, Coach Ruane's team won four of its final five games. They lost a close game, 13-7, to the S.I. Wildcats, who won the league title. In the final drive the Eaglets upset previously unbeaten Lincoln. Throughout the season a few players showed promise for future varsity success. These players included Ernest Provost, Delano Walker, and Otto Coleman. Other outstanding players were Alfred, Colquin, and Chinn. Congratulations to Coach Ruane and his team for a good season.

Coach Ellinger and his team won the 1963 AAA Soccer Championship with a round-robin championship and a victory in the playoffs. They finished the season with a record of seven wins, no losses and three ties. In the overall league season, the Eagles scored 25 goals and had only one goal scored against them; this was due to Washington's All-City goalie, Mike Ivanow and the rest of the defensive-minded team. Coach Ellinger stressed defense first and then offense. His strategy and hard work payed off in the first victory in many years. Bob Macias and Jon Fromer led the AAA scorers with 10 goals apiece, Envir Safir scored 5 goals. This is a remarkable record because the third leading scorer in the city had only 6 goals to his credit. In addition to Ivanow, Macias, and Fromer, Washington placed George Fernandez and Roger Sarria on the first string All-City; Chris Wager and Envir Safir were named to second-string All-City positions. It was a team effort throughout the season that gave Washington the championship. Jon Fromer won the Most Valuable Player award and Floyd Harley received the Most Improved Player award. Congratulations to Mr. Ellinger and his fine team for their excellent play, in bringing Washington the AAA Soccer Championship.

Outstanding players on the 112's were: Punzel and De Witt, while the 120's were led by Ray Coleman. The 112's finished the season with a 9-0 record. The 120's lost only two games and won seven; they tied with Galileo for second place, with Mission winning the championship. Congratulations to Mr. McGrath, Mr. Athanasopoulos, and Mr. Corsetti, as well as their fine teams for an outstanding season.

The Washington Varsity Basketball Team of 1963-1964 was one of the best teams the Eagles have had in years. Coach McGrath's team led by All-City Forward Ken Whitcomb went all the way to the AAA playoffs before being defeated in the first round by S.I., 43-30. This was only the second league loss for the Eagles; the S.H. team defeated Washington 65-30 in a regular season game. The Eagles best games were played against Lincoln, where the Mustangs were defeated in a 60-54 thriller. The game was not decided until the closing minutes of play. Ed Wilson led the Eagles to victory in that game with 20 points. The Eagles also defeated S.I. in their first meeting by a 63-30 victory. The Cats were at the mercy of the dominant Eagles throughout the entire game. Stu Watterson pulled down 22 rebounds and 14 points to help the Eagles coast to victory. Performances like this brought Stu a position on the Second String All-City Team. The AAA competition was the strongest in many years, with Washington, Lincoln and S.H. finishing in a tie for first place after the round-robin with 9 and 1 records. S.H. defeated S.I. in the championship game; they will be the AAA's representative in the Tournament of Champions competition. Phil Scramaglia, Ken Balzar and Bill Chang rounded out Washington's top six and helped push the Eagles into the play-offs. Congratulations to Coach McGrath and his fine team for the excellent showing they made in the 1963-64 season.

130 BASKETBALL

Washington's 130's finished the season with a record of 4 wins and 5 losses. They played good ball all year winning tough games and losing easy ones. The team was led by Bobby Wang, who made the All-City First String Team. Paul Dobie was also a consistent player who was tough on the boards and helped Washington in clinch situations by making key rebounds. Gene Holman and Floyd Piper also played well for the Eagles, as did Jerry Mahoney and Elmer Sims. The bench strength was led by Ken Parks, Mike Scott, and Ken Gray. Mr. A's team played good games, losing by close scores in most of their defeats. The team played hard all season and should be congratulated along with their coach, Mr. A., for a fine season.

GOLF

The Washington golf team, with about as much experience and talent as they have had in years, is expected to be the top contender to upset defending champion Lincoln. This list, not necessarily in order, is a fair indication of the team this year: Roger Mialacq, Gary Hamada, Jim Haley, Brad Lucy, Larry Cerf, Jay Osborne who shot a hole in one at Lincoln golf course on Friday the 13th, Paul Brady, Sid Goldstein, Hal Baer, Richard Lepke, Peter Baylacq, and Steve Beck. The team has many practice matches at well known courses, such as Pebble Beach, Stanford, Peninsula, Chabot, Meadow Club, Merced and Alameda. The AAA league has a number of good teams this season, and Coach McGrath feels that his duffers will have to play top golf to win the title. There has been a change this year in match proceedings; medal play will be enacted this year instead of the usual match play. This means that the top five scores from eight golfers will be counted and added up. Good luck to Coach McGrath and his team in their determined bid for the city title.

TENNIS

Washington's varsity tennis team has made a very impressive showing this far in the 1964 season. Under the coaching of Mr. Callen the team has beaten Sacred Heart, Balboa, and Lincoln high schools. They should give Lowell a good battle for the AAA championship. The top five thus far are, Bruce Hall, Bart Goldberg, John Wong, and Sam Gerzowski, and Ken Combs. The three doubles teams are, Quincy Lay and Jeff Levin, Oliver Ignacio and Emil De Guzman, Peter Sills and Jerry Togawa. These boys are the ones who will compete for Washington in the league matches. With the hard work and determination that these boys and their coach have exhibited thus far in the season, they should be one of the top contenders in the 1964 AAA tennis league.

J.V. BASEBALL

J.V. Baseball coach, Mr. "A" forecasts a bright season for Washington's 1964 ball club. He says that his boys will finish high above the 500 mark. The Eagle JV's will be led by: Hamada, Lewis, Durkin, White, De Gracia, Wells, and Baugh. The team has won it's practice games at the time this book went to press, and it looks that Mr. "A" and his team are headed for a good season in the '64 league.

BASEBALL

The Eagle horsehiders under Coach Sovdie are enjoying the most successful season in many years. So far in the season the Washington varsity has lost a couple of close games and has also won a couple. SI fell to the Eagles 6 to 3 and Wilson was also defeated 9 to 6. The Eagles lost games to Galileo 4 to 2, Poly 5 to 3, and Lincoln 12 to 3. In the preseason practice games, Eagle hurler Tony Matthews pitched a no-hitter against Terra Nova as Washington won 17 to 0. This years team is led by Merritt Barnes, Jon Gutteres, John Adams, Mike Evanow, Lee Evans, Don Carman, Roger Sarria, Al Gralnack, Steve, Bumpsy, Jones, Pat Radcliff, Rich Gazzano, Tony Matthews, and Al Lenoard. All-City candidate from last year, Steve Goldsmith, has been out for the early part of the season with an injury. His return in the latter half of the year should give the team added strength. Washington plays each team in the AAA twice, and the top four teams are sent to the playoffs. So far a couple games have been rained out. The team is a strong one with a lot of potential; the remainder of the season should find Coach Sovdie and his team in the thick of the 1964 AAA title race.

SWIMMERS BID FOR TITLE

The 1964 swimming team under Coach Frank Ellinger is the top contender for the AAA title this year. The team performed very well in their 15 pre-season meets. They met such teams as the University of California freshmen, the San Jose State freshmen, City College of San Francisco, Napa Santa Rosa, Menlo, Jefferson, Harry Ells, San Mateo, Capachino, Carlmont, Montgomery, and Mills. The 120's, 130's and Unlimteds did very well against these tough competitors. So far in the league meets, the Eagle mermen demolished the Balboa swim team by an overwhelming margin. Coach Ellinger has been working the team out very hard at Fleishacker Pool, the scene of all league meets. He figures that the team should win the over all championship from defending champs and arch rivals S.I. This year's varsity is led by Allan Stanbridge, Rick Meyerhoff, Alex Shestakov, Dave Dryden, Bob Davis, Jim Bangert, Bruce Smith, Alex Avdeef, Bob Froggatt, and Ron Appel. Jim Firth, Al Minville, Frank Harris, Woody Marshall, Steve Kovacs are also top performers. The 130's are led by King Carl Derringer, Guy Hiroshima, Doug Guillon, Don Lofton, Alex Amochaev, Jon Cotton, Pete Oquist, Ken Shimosaka, Steve Snow, Glenn Watanabe, Herman White, Roger Strauss, Roger Toulze, and Jim Friedman. The 120's are led by Richard Zimmerman, Rick Bibbero, Sandy Constine, John Kakushi, Ronald Omori, Tony Matsumota, Brian Matsumura, Bob Phillips, Jan Shannon, Tak Yoshida, and James Rogers. School records were broken this season by varsity and 130 performers. Rick Meyerhoff broke the 100 yard free and the 60 yard free records for varsity. Alex Shestakov broke the record for the 100 yard butterfly and the 200 yard free. Allan Stanbridge broke school records in the 400 yard free, the 200 yard individual medley, and the 133 yard individual medley. The relay team of Rick Bibbero, King Carl Derringer, Herman White, and James Friedman broke the 160 yard medley relay record. The team this year boasts the best timers and managers in the city. Francie Choteau, Linda Reich, Gail Goldstein, Jackie Herst, and Ellie De Felippo, are the competent timers and Mac Seimel, Tony Dizon, are the managers. With the best coach in the city who has developed the finest team in the city the Washington swimming team will be one of the top contenders for the 1964 AAA title. This writer is sure that the team effort put through in meets thus far will carry the team to the championship.

CONTENDERS FOR A.A.A. TITLE

As the Surveyor goes to press, the Eagle trackmen coached by Mr. Redlick and Mr. Nelson are top contenders for the 1964 A.A.A. title. The varsity and 120's are currently undefeated, and the 130's are an even .500. Both coaches feel that with a little luck and a lot of hard work, the team can defeat the rest of the city's teams. Outstanding varsity performers include Prince, Provost, Smith, and Benton in the sprints, Johnson and Baranoff in the 440, and Thomas in the 880. Johnson and Kirtman look good in the hurdles, and the relay team of Provost, Prince, Wells, and Benton could break the city record. The weightmen are led by Wells, Bernstein, Salisbury, and Duckworth. The field events are led by Russell and Benton in the broad jump; Gordon and Holmes in the high jump; and Sussman is the leading pole vaulter. The lightweight performers are: Patillo, Yerman, Greenberg, Piper, Scott, Gaines, Garrett, Sims, Fromer, Robinson, Silverstein, and L. Gordon. The 120's are led by O. Coleman, Mosely, Pagcaliwagon, Colyear, J. Coleman, Rago, Israel, Wong, Nakano, and Kormos. We think that with the performances already turned in so far, the team will go all the way, and capture the A.A.A. track title.

CLASS OF FALL 1963

Our little class, made up of less than 200 graduates, came into being in February of 1961. Although we were small, we were strong, full of spirit, and willing to work and work hard.

In our sophomore year we planted shrubbery in order to further beautify our school. We also had numerous cake sales and car washes.

During our junior year we presented our Junior Day entitled "West Side" and the Junior Day Dance, "Dance in the Gym." Next, came our fabulous Junior Prom, "Midnight Magic" which was held in the Grand Ballroom of the Fairmont Hotel.

From there the time flew by and before we knew it we were high and mighty seniors, with much excitement ahead. There was Senior Day, "On The Beach," and the dance "Beach Ball." Our Senior Prom, "Arivederci," was held at the St. Francis Hotel in the Italian Room.

Commencement exercises on January 29, 1964 brought to an end our three years at George Washington High School, but three years never to be forgotten.

CLASS OF SPRING 1964

In September of 1961 our class entered George Washington. At a total of 900 students we were one of the largest classes ever to enter this school. Organization was difficult with so many scattered individuals, but we managed to unite and thereby carry out all our activities with great success.

During our sophomore year we held a very successful cake sale under the leadership of our president, Bob Masuda, and our vice president, Bob Merchant. With the money derived from this cake sale we planted shrubbery. As our term project we sent Eagle newspapers to servicemen who had formerly attended Washington.

In our Junior year our big project was Junior Day, "The Bears and the Bees," and our Junior Prom, "Midnight Mist" at the Fairmont Hotel.

Our senior year projects began with the presentation of a movie to earn money for our Senior prom. From our treasury we arranged for a trophy in memory of John F. Kennedy to be awarded each year to a graduating senior excelling in leadership in his class and school. Our Senior Day, "Guts and Jewels" was followed by our successful Senior Day Dance and a senior picnic the next day. The crowning touch to our entire senior year was our beautiful senior prom, "Moments to Remember," at the St. Francis. Finally with mixed emotions we graduated from George Washington at the Opera House on June 11, 1964.

THE BENCH
by Ed Wilson H-12 111

Here I sit upon the bench;
My nerves are tighter than a monkey wrench.
The desire to play is burning inside,
But here I must sit and rest my pride—
Look at the team go down the floor
Playing the game that I adore.

Time out is called and to my surprise
The coach he raises one of his eyes.
The coach's words sound fierce as ever—
The team looks tired, but quit they'll never.
Time in is called and it's back to the bench,
They don't need me for the win is a cinch.

Two points for Phil—there goes Ken
We're a team that plays to win.
The ball is passed to good ole Stu;
He aims for the basket, straight and true.
Any way you look at it, we're still a team,
And I'm part of it, right down to the seam!
